

Other Remarks:

Please indicate the level of disabilities (please tick “✓” in the corresponding “ ” symbols)

1. The hearing disabled, even after remedy, the hearing ability doesn't reach 90 decibel
2. The person has lost hearing ability or losing power of speech, but still can communicate with others by sound.
3. The person has lost fingers of both hands, but some fingers or one palm of one hand are still remaining.
4. The person has lost one upper limb, but after installing the artificial limb, the disabled can do daily ordinary work without the help of others.
5. The person has lost left lower limb, but the other limb is sound, and after installing the artificial limb, the disabled can walk without the help of others.
6. The person has lost left lower limb, and the other limb is in disorder also, but after installing the artificial limb, the disabled can walk without the help of others
7. The person has lost right lower limb, but the other limb is sound or in disorder, but after installing the artificial limb, the disabled can walk without the help of others.

8. The disabled can walk without the help of artificial limbs or others person's help.
9. The disabled can easily crouch and stand up
10. The disabled has not lost trunk or limbs, but due to an inborn or acquired diseases, the person has lost some physical functions (such as limbs deformed, paralysis, or trunk deformed which caused the person difficult to walk or stand up), but after installing the artificial limbs, this person can walk without the help of others.
11. Other physical disability conditions (Please have the physician to make records in the following space)

Signature of the physician
